

Tennessee SOUNDS GOOD to Me!

May 5—12, 2012 - $2,399 * per person
 from Helena & Great Falls

(based on double occupancy)

Looking for a tour featuring a variety of music, scenery, and fun new sights and sounds? Then our “Tennessee Sounds Good” tour is just for you! You’ll start off in St. Louis in the spring—and spring means BASEBALL. You’ll see the Busch Stadium, the St. Louis Arch, Budweiser Brewery and other famous St. Louis landmarks.

From here, you’ll set off to the Home of Blues. Welcome to Memphis, TN. You can’t visit Memphis without taking time to listen to the music on Beale Street or seeing Elvis Presley’s home, the famous Graceland.

Our next stop is Nashville, TN — Country Music Capital. During your time in Nashville, you’ll visit the Country Music Hall of Fame, stay at the beautiful Gaylord’s Opryland Hotel and see the Grand Old Opry evening show. Maybe your favorite Country star will be performing that evening!!

Before returning home, it’s on to Pigeon Forge where you’ll spend a day at Dollywood Theme Park. Several stages offer a variety of musical entertainment. On your last day, you will step back into nature and tour the Smoky Mountain National Park. Spend free time exploring Gatlinburg or picking up any last minute souvenirs before your farewell dinner and trip home.

So grab a friend and sign up for this delightful ‘sounding’ tour! You’re sure to have a great time!
