For your enjoyment, this adventure will have a nautical theme. Start off by staying on the Riverfront Park in Downtown Spokane. You'll have free time to explore, shop, dine and relax during your free time the first day. The next day you're off to explore Coeur d'Alene and the lake. Start at the Coeur d'Alene Resort where you can find a place to sit and watch the boats, have lunch, or find a quiet place to relax in this magnificent setting. Some may want to explore local antique shops, cafes and boutiques before the group takes an afternoon lake cruise. Enjoy a hot drink as you view the fall colors from the water. Return to Spokane and enjoy your group dinner before taking your seats for the live performance of South Pacific. Return home with a surprise stop along the way.

ITINERARY:

Day 1: Travel by motorcoach to Spokane, Washington. Check into the Red Lion Inn on Riverfront Park for a two night stay. Enjoy time on your own to explore your choice of attractions and dine in downtown Spokane. Be sure to rest up because tomorrow is a big day!

Day 2: After breakfast, we're driving to Coeur d' Alene, Idaho for a change of pace. To keep with the nautical theme, you'll be dropped off at the Coeur d' Alene Resort on the shores of the lake. You can enjoy watching the boats, order lunch, or just relax in the setting of the resort. For those who want to explore, you will be provided a list of recommended shops and cafes within walking distance. Antique shoppers are in for a treat! There are several shops in this area for you to browse during your free time. After lunch on your own, the group will board a cruise vessel and view the fall colors from Coeur d' Alene Lake. Enjoy your time on the water with a hot beverage and a snack before returning to Spokane. Freshen up, then be ready to enjoy a fabulous group dinner. Then sit back and be delighted by the live Broadway performance of South Pacific. Meals: B,S,D

Day 3: Board your Deluxe Motorcoach after breakfast for your return trip home with memories of this nautical trip. Of course we'll have a mystery stop the way home. Can you guess where it will be? Meals: B
